HITCH OCCURS IN PREMIER'S PLANS FOR CONFERENCE ON IRISH PEACE

De Valera's Non-Committal Message is Not Conductive to Peace

WARFARE CONTINUES LONDON REPORTS SAY

Sir James Craig Declines De-Valera Invitation for Parley in Dublin

(International News Service)
LONDON, June 29.—Eamon De Valera's non-committal message to Premier Lloyd George is not conducive to Irish peace, according to opinions expressed in Irish office circles today.
De Valera did not indicate whether or not he would accept the Premier's invitation to a peace parley.
To illustrate that war conditions in Ireland, Dublin castle advisers stated that one loyalist had been killed by Irish republicans, three houses burned and three ambush attacks made on crown forces this morning.

BELFAST, IRELAND, June 29.— Sir James Craig, premier of Ulster, today declined Eamon De Valera's invitation to go to Dublin on Monday for a political conference.

Sir James replied to the invitation as follows: "It is impossible for me to arrange meeting. I have already accepted Premier Lloyd George's invitation to the London conference."

HUNTSVILLE WILL NOT GET CONTESTS

Announcement was made today by Charles Rountree, president of the Albany-Decatur baseball club, that the three games, proposed to be played in Huntsville this week, between the Twins and Russellville, of the Alabama-Tennessee circuit, have been called off. The games will be played in Russellville, as originally scheduled.
Inability to make arrangements with Huntsville fans for the park there was given as the reason. The Huntsville team has two games scheduled this week which the team was unable to postpone, it was stated.

HERE'S HOW MUCH UNCLE SAM OWES

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, June 29.—The total interest bearing debt of the United States on April 30 was $23,759,514,102, it was announced by the treasury department today. Matured interest obligations brought the gross debt up to nearly $25,000,000,000 on that date.
The great bulk of the national debt is represented by Liberty and Victory bonds of which there are outstanding $19,343,464,750. The balance is scattered among Panama canal bonds, certificates of indebtedness, war savings stamps and other bonds.

TELEPHONE USED FOR LOVE BABBLE

(International News Service)
POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 29.—
"Open the window and imagine that I am hugging you." Fred K. Beauvais, half-breed Indian guide, said this over the telephone to Mrs. Fifi Potter Stillman, a witness testified at today's hearing before Referee Gleason.
"There is no chance for a compromise," a member of Mrs. Stillman's legal staff, said in answer to reports that a compromise was in sight. The multi-millionaire himself was expected to testify either late today or sometime tomorrow.
His side of the case will be completed before the end of the week, it was announced.

GLORIOUS FOURTH TO BE 'SPORT DAY' IN ALBANY-DECATUR

Minus some of the bombastic pyro-technic display of former years perhaps, the Glorious Fourth will be celebrated in Albany and Decatur principally as a day of sport.

The Albany Gun club today announced that many acceptances of its invitations to trap shooters have been received and shots from Tennessee, Mississippi and Alabama will participate here in an all day shoot at the aviation field.

The Albany-Decatur Twins will meet the Columbia Mules here two games, one in the morning and one in the afternoon. Word was received today from the Tennessee city to the effect that Columbia fans are planning to come here on a special train to pull for the Mules. They will be accompanied by a brass band and noise making devices without number, it was stated.

Special entertainments at local theatres, private picnics and a barbecue given by the Albany Gun club to the visiting trap shooters will complete the menu of entertainment for the day.

COMPLETE POWERS GRANTED DAWES

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, June 29.—President Harding gave fair warning to all the cabinet officers, bureau chiefs and assistant chiefs in Washington this afternoon that his administration is pledged to the cause of economy in government.
There is no menace in the world today, the President said, like that of growing public indebtedness and mounting public expenditures and he intends to correct the impression that the United States treasury is inexhaustible.

The widest possible powers were granted General Charles Dawes in his undertaking to produce a workable budget in 30 days and put the government on a basis of business-like efficiency.

In his role as director of the budget, General Dawes will take precedence over any member of the cabinet where fiscal affairs are concerned.
This wide authority, greater than has been accorded any other officer of the government, was given General Dawes with the full consent of the cabinet itself.

Interest Unpaid On Allied Debt

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, June 29.—Foreign governments owe the United States nearly a billion dollars in interest alone, entirely aside from the principal debt of nearly $10,000,000,000.
This was disclosed today by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon and Assistant Secretary Wadsworth when they appeared before the senate finance committee in support of the administration's bill to give the treasury head blanket authority to deal with the outstanding foreign obligations.

PERMISSION GIVEN FOR CONSTRUCTION OF POWER UNIT AT DUNCAN'S RIFFLE

Federal Power Commission Grants Authority for Continuance of Work

POWER DEMANDS STILL INCREASING IN STATE

Two Years Will be Required to Finish Project, Martin Says

Thomas W. Martin, President of the Alabama Power Company, today made the following statement:
"The Federal Power Commission formally granted a license to the Alabama Power Company today for the construction of a dam and power plant at the Duncan's Riffle site on the Coosa River which will be named Mitchell Dam in memory of Mr. James Mitchell, who was the company's executive from the beginning of its operations to his death in 1920.

"The Board of Directors of the Company at its meeting several days ago, formally authorized the acceptance of the license, and construction work will begin on the new project in the near future.

"The present demands for power make it necessary for work to be commenced at once. With the return of normal business, which we hope to see in the near future, these demands will be increased. The upbuilding of the State and the development of its resources require power in large volumes, and it is our confident belief that the demand for power will exceed the capacity of the new development before its completion.

"The plant will have an ultimate capacity of 120,000 horsepower and 60,000 horsepower will be installed at once.

"The construction will require about two years, and power should be available from the new plant not later than July 1, 1923. All construction supplies and material will be purchased in the state, and employment given to domestic labor so far as possible, in order that the territory served by our company may realize the fullest benefits possible from the construction."

THOMAS W. MARTIN.

DETAILS OF BILL ARE OF NO CONCERN

WASHINGTON, June 28.—The Borah disarmament amendment is not objectionable to President Harding.

"It is not of particular concern to the administration what form the expression of congress shall take, although it is most agreeable that congress shall express itself in favor of securing, if possible, an international agreement upon a program for limitation of armament," the president stated in a letter to Republican Leader Mondell.

Austin Declares He is Attacked

(Montgomery Bureau Albany-Decatur Daily.)

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 29.—
C. W. Austin, chief state law enforcement officer, announced yesterday that he had received information from a reliable source that an effort was being made in Montgomery to raise a fund with which to attack the validity of his department and that suit probably would be started before many days. He said attorneys have already been employed to bring quo warranto proceedings seeking to prevent the payment of the appropriation to this department which was made by the legislature in 1919 and increased in 1920.

Chief Austin said the fund is being subscribed by persons who do not want the Sunday laws enforced. Twelve persons were arrested Sunday on charges of remaining open on Sunday, one was charged with operating a house of ill reputation, one was charged with vagrancy and one was charged with violating the prohibition laws.

Rev. Bob Jones, who conducted the revival which started the enforcement of the Sunday laws, came to the courthouse about the time the cases were called. He was accompanied by Mrs. Jones and several Montgomery women who are interested in the enforcement of all laws.

10 INNING BATTLE WON BY MINERS; THRILLS APLENTY FOR MOST BLASE

Free Customers Who Come in Late Shared All of the Excitement

WHEN CARTER IS SENT TO BENCH, FUN STARTS

Nicholson is Knocked Out of Box in Just Two Innings

After having won the opening game of the series Monday, Russellville generously offered the second game to the Twins yesterday, but the locals were not in a receptive mood and not to be outdone by their guests, they declined to take advantage of the offer and went down to defeat in the first extra inning contest on the local lot this year 6 to 5. The idea was for somebody to win the game and as the locals would not, necessarily the pleasure became the Miners. For some seven innings it was an Alphonso-Ganton affair.

It was a very hectic afternoon.
Those who came in late, however, were entertained right royally in the shank of the evening by an interpolated program which included some unusual baseball, a player yanked from the game some panning of Manager McDuff from the stands and a near fight on the local bench when an irate fan went to the dugout to interview the Twin manager. Officers took charge and dispersed the rapidly increasing crowd about the bench. The free customers who drifted in the eighth and ninth stanzas got about as much out of the contest as those who went the whole route.
Previous to the eighth, the affair had been very, very dull.

Nicholson assayed to do the hurling chores for Handy Andy Ware, but Nitch forgot his "stuff" and left it at the hotel or somewhere, having such a limited quantity with him that he was relieved by Mr. Mott at the beginning of the third after the Twins had scored 3 runs on four hits. Mose-ley also pitched erratic ball, striking out seven, but allowing 13 hits.

Big Jawn Cochrane, one time a member of the Twin clan, was on the local's neck again yesterday.
Jawn hammered out a single, a double and a triple. Ever since he was sold to Russellville, Jawn has been busily occupied while here in convincing local fans that he is a real ball player. Now that they are willing to admit he is such, seems it is time for Jawn to take a vacation.

As per usual the Twins got away in the lead yesterday. Spitz strolled and McDuff crossed the Miners infield by shooting a safety past third when Acton came tearing in for the expected sacrifice. Spitz went to second. Carter's single to left scored Spitz after two were down.

Russellville tied it up in the second and the lead switched back and forth until the eighth when the Miners again tied the count in a hard and fast knot 5-5.

In the local's half of the eighth evidence was given of the strain everybody seemed to be laboring under.
Spitz accused Wilson of holding his bat and players separated the two before any damage resulted, other than a war of words.

In the ninth Big Jawn hit to left and playing heads-up baseball, when the ball did not come back to the infield promptly, he kept right on going and slid safely into second.
It was at this juncture that McDuff relieved Carter, sending Dewey Mc-Clain to left and Russell to right. On a short passed ball, Cochrane attempted to swipe third, but Johnston's throw to the hot corner cut him off.
Lauderman, McDuff and Spitz then began a chase to run him down, but Laudie's throw toward second got past both Spitz and McDuff and Cochrane went to third. Newsome lifted a fly to Russell and Big Jawn scored. It ended the run-making for the locals.

Irish Farmers Back Dempsey to Last Penny

(International News Service)
DUBLIN, June 29.—Ireland is backing Jack Dempsey to beat Georges Carpentier to the last penny. If the French fighter wins, there will be a lot of empty pockets in this country.

In the agricultural districts some men even sold their farms and cattle to raise money to wager on the fight.
For the time Dempsey ranks with De Valera in Irish interest.
Bets are 10 to 1 for the American.

NEW CLOSING LAW FOR SUNDAY ASKED OF CHIEF EXECUTIVE

(Montgomery Bureau Albany-Decatur Daily.)

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 29.—
Governor Kilby was urged by a delegation of citizens led by Rev. Bob Jones to include in his call a provision for the enactment of more explicit laws requiring Sunday observance in the event he decides to call an extra session of the legislature during the year. Governor Kilby assured the committee that he would give serious consideration to the request after he had determined that an extra session will be held.

The special committee was created at the organization of the official members of the protestant churches of Montgomery Sunday afternoon.
They told the governor the wording of the laws relating to Sunday observance is very uncertain of meaning and that Alabama should have laws on this subject which can be easily understood. Governor Kilby assured the committee that every law on the statute books, according to his opinion, should be so written that any person could understand the meaning of the legislature in enacting it and that he would be glad to do whatever is necessary to make the meaning clear if such be possible.

Attention was called by the committee to the fact that the Sunday laws now in force have been effective for many years and that they do not fit since there has been such a great change in the ways of living. Members of the committee which placed the subject before the governor were Rev. Bob Jones, Col. Bibb Graves, Eugene Ballard, H. F. Lee, Rev. P. N.
McDonald, Edmund Beckwith, S. J.
Cassels and George H. Thigpen. The committee was with the governor more than an hour.

JAPANESE TREATY WORRIES BRITISH

(International News Service)

LONDON, June 29.—Negotiations in the British imperial conference over the renewal of the Anglo-Japanese treaty have reached a deadlock, it was learned today. The position of the British government at present is that the treaty must be resumed in some form, but nothing must be done that would endanger the friendly relations between this country and the United States.

The premiers of the British overseas dominion, who are attending the conference lay great stress upon the importance of keeping the most cordial terms with America.

Seventeen People Are Held in Girard

(Montgomery Bureau Albany-Decatur Daily.)

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 29.—
State law enforcement agents arrested seventeen persons at Girard last Sunday on charges of remaining open in violation of the state law requiring the observances of the Sabbath, according to a report received by the department Tuesday. Raids were made on the establishments of Phoenix City, just across the county line from Girard, two weeks ago and several persons paid fines of ten dollars and costs for violating the Sunday laws.

LABOR BOARD AT SAME TIME CUTS OUT HIGHER RATE FOR "OVERTIME"

Union Chiefs Gather in Chicago to Discuss New Developments

PRESENT SCALES STAY IN EFFECT FOR PRESENT

Time is Given for New Agreements to be Reached
With Men

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, June 29.—Railway labor chiefs en route or already gathered here to canvass the 12 per cent wage slash which by order of the United States railway labor board will chop $400,000,000 from railway workers' pay, were confronted here today by a further adverse action by the board.

In a new ruling the board eliminated overtime pay at the rate of time and half for all work over an eight hour day.
However, in another ruling the railway workers gained a temporary advantage. The board, by indefinitely extending the operation of the national agreement, which on April 14, it had directed should terminate next Friday, permits pay to continue as at present until agreements between the employing roads and their men are reached, regarding the wage cuts.

The extension of the order does not apply to those roads which have reached agreements with their workers.
In a measure the new ruling was expected to eliminate the possibility of an immediate country-wide strike.

tirely in the hands of its prohibition

BASE BALL'S SPHERE OF INFLUENCE IS LARGER AND BETTER

Not so many years ago as to have been forgotten, professional base ball was looked upon by the "average citizen," as of the evil one, and a curse to those who played in the games or attended them. But the men and boys who have gone in for the national sport, have been making good for so long now, that little or nothing is said against the popular pastime. The people are learning about the games for themselves, and they are seeing for themselves that it is a clean wholesome game, and one in which the best man is most surely the winner.

It is known now, that it takes a well balanced character to make good as a player of the game. Fewer and fewer of the young fellows who play ball for a living are going wild or losing their health from excesses. It has been proven too plainly, that a dissipated life and a base ball career will not go together. The national sport requires clear brains, good judgment and steady nerves. And the game holds out more of a future for players of merit, than it ever did. Boys playing in the "D" and "C" leagues, or in semi-pro, know that the big fast companies that play to thousands every day in the large cities are beckoning to them to "come on and let's go up." The most unthoughtful knows that those who spend their nights in riot, and their mid-nights in unclean mirth, need not listen to the cry of the big league managers, for such will be found wanting in the larger tasks.

To the tired and worried public, the ball games are a god-send. Instead of worrying over things they cannot control, such as foreign money markets, the difficulty of enforcing the prohibition laws, the new styles of the women folks, heredity, normalcy, the Republican tariff, the dear public can attend the ball games and wear themselves out to nervous wrecks over why their favorite batter has slumped, why the umpire does not "call them" like we see them instead of like he sees them and why the home team doesn't win every day, regardless of whether they are encouraged or not.

And again, the national game furnishes a perfectly harmless opportunity to go gloriously and wholesomely crazy—an opportunity to say bad things in fun about those we secretly admire, but whom we hate most royally just for the moment—the moment the game or something does not go just to suit us, and we see a chance to misplace the blame! One of the many other good things base ball has accomplished, is the establishment of the conviction on a solid basis, that all men are and ought to be free and equal. If the American game had been played the world around for generations past, as it is played in Albany and Decatur, beyond a doubt no world war for the destruction of autocracy, would ever have been "called" or have been necessary, as was the case during the years including 1914 and 1918, for democracy reigns supreme during a ball game—on the diamond, in the grand stands and on the bleachers benches! No person attempts to be a Czar, where base ball game is in progress, not even his umps, the Umpire! All hail to the national game! Let joy be unconfined!

RICHMOND ON THE JAMES

The majority of people know Richmond, Virginia, as the capital of the Confederate states during the last years of the Civil war, and seldom think of it as a modern city of upwards of 175,000 inhabitants. Twenty five years ago Richmond had a population of only 85,000 so a little figuring will show that the historic city has been growing by leaps and bounds. Inquiry made into the underlying causes that have made Richmond what she is today, reveals the information that one prime cause accounts for the Virginia metropolis. This cause is summed up in one word—COOPERATION. When its citizens are asked, does not the river location of your city, the development of the rapids of the James as hydro-electrical power, and the consequent development of your industries, account for the city's growth, they reply "no," that it was cooperation back of all natural advantages that accomplished the miracle. It was cooperation that made these advantages of practical value, that made the river their servant, the rapids their benefactor, and that brought the great industries to their doors.

A case of cooperation among the citizens of Richmond recently came to light, while in this instance not on a large scale, still it illustrated the vision and the big way in which the people of that city do things.

It became the consensus of opinion that a certain long boulevard was too narrow to accommodate the traffic, and that some means should be used to widen it. Investigation revealed the fact that the city treasury was not in a condition to pay property owners along the boulevard large bonuses for the right to extend the street. So later, a large majority of the property owners who would have their yards cut into, in case the boulevard in question was widened, held a meeting, and after due consideration decided to donate to their city such parts of their property as might be needed to make the boulevard what it ought to be. This decision meant great financial loss to the men and women who made it, but they were not looking for dollars and cents in the immediate present. They were holding out the hand of cooperation to each other for a future gain. They were not selfishly considering present advantage. Besides being a great industrial and money making city, Richmond is noted for its beauty, elegant public buildings, immaculate cleanliness, and large park reservations. The city school buildings are palaces in appearance, perfect in appointment, and furnish ample accommodation for the thousands of school children that throng the halls and recitation rooms. It was the spirit of cooperation—and nothing else—so say its citizens, that made the historic city of Richmond, Virginia, what she is today. What that Southern city has done can be duplicated by many a community in the sunny South. Richmond's accomplishments can be duplicated measurably by the Twin Cities of Albany and Decatur, if we but get and keep the same spirit of cooperation which Richmond has found so beneficial.

A NEW ERA OF BUSINESS IS SURE TO DAWN

The war and its attendant ills cannot but be reflected, in all departments of life. It would have been unreasonable and unthinkable, for such a disturbance as the great war to have occurred without demoralization from one end of the world to the other. The changing costs of materials and of labor, have necessarily caused hesitation in many lines to endeavor. But in spite of all an optimistic feeling has persisted. People have felt that with such a large demand for the products of industry, that eventually the wheels of industry must begin to hum. At no time since the armistice, has there appeared so many solid reasons for believing that the expected new era of driving business, is near at hand.

The costs of raw materials have begun to materially decline and labor conditions have greatly improved. The forces of labor are more and more conforming to their slogan of "a fair day's work for a fair day's pay." The Bolshevik idea of getting some thing for nothing, is steadily becoming more and more unpopular. There remains no longer any such thing as Bolshevism, except in Russia, and in that country Bolshevized industrialism has proved an utter failure. The election of Samuel Gompers, an avowed and bitter enemy of both Bolshevism and extreme socialism, as the President of the American Federation of Labor is not without significance. Gompers' triumph means that the dishonest schemes of certain men to wreck governments and destroy sound business are to come to naught—at least during the present generation. The inflation following war conditions is being gotten out of business—a process that has necessarily proved painful to all and disastrous to many. The shaking down process has not been a pleasant one for any one, but it has been a necessary one.

Most hopeful of all of the many dire prophecies as to business chaos have not come true! The transportation systems have not broken down. The nation's credit has not suffered, despite the huge war debts contracted and there has been no great revolutionary uprising, such as has visited most of the countries of the world. There are many problems to be solved, but we are solving them as we come to them and will continue to do so, as long as the people of the whole nation have a mind to work and to plan for better things.

LOYALTY TO THE WHOLE COMMUNITY MEANS TRUE PROGRESS

The record of the intense devotion of the ancients to their cities is one of the bright pages of history. In modern times that spirit of all for one and one for all has not been so marked, though there are many cases on record when the community spirit has been the cause of the building up of great cities. A notable case of the united wills of a community making a city, is that of Atlanta, Ga. With no natural advantages whatsoever, the Georgia town of a few years ago is now the metropolis of the state, and one of the first cities of the new South. Glancing back over the past, it is common knowledge that a Frenchman who lives in Paris, considers himself as much a Parisian as a citizen of France. Venice and Florence, Italy, were regarded with as much patriotic zeal, as was the country of Italy. In the case of Rome, more interest centered about the eternal city than any other community in the world. All roads led to Rome. Athens, Greece, was perhaps the most idolized city of antiquity. It is recorded, as a custom there, that when ever free citizens of Athens, were due sums of money from the city treasury, that invariably, they refused to draw it, but let the entire amounts revert to the city as a common fund, for the defense of Athens from her enemies within or without. There was a great Athenian named Themistocles, who was banished from his beloved city, and had to take refuge with a Persian King. After that king had loaded him with honors and made him rich, for some reason he decided to make war on Athens. When the noble Themistocles, although he had been wretchedly banished by the Athenians, learned that he was expected to aid the Persian monarch against his beloved city rather than do so put an end to his life.

There may be no good and loyal citizens of these cities, who feel that their efforts are unappreciated, but in case there are such, they should still have the spirit of loyalty to their home towns, just as Themistocles was true to his beloved Athens, even after its citizens had turned their backs on him. To a truly public spirited person, whether man or woman, the slights of "outrageous fortune," and the seeming thoughtlessness and ingratitude so often in evidence, will prove only incidental to the day's work, and will discourage only for a short time. So intent should all the citizenship be upon cooperation and up-building, and so deep should the devotion be to the best interests of the whole community, that nothing can defeat or turn us aside from following the pathway of true progress.

Before demanding the removal of George Harvey from the Court of St. James, consider well where you will put him. He is strictly persona non grata in his native country and unfortunately we have no Siberia to which to send him.

It is hoped no war clouds will appear before July 2nd, by those who have money on Dempsey.

The war is over in Germany at last.

Since Dempsey never learned that war was hell, at the right time, there are many who care not if he catches it July 2nd.

WONDERS OF AMERICA

HOME OF WASHINGTON

ON THE peaceful and picturesque shore of the River Potomac, some sixteen miles south of our national capital, stands Mount Vernon—the home of The Father of His Country.
It was so named in honor of Admiral Vernon of the British navy and it is to the efforts of the Mount Vernon Ladies' association of the Union that the citizens of America are indebted for the preservation of this national shrine.

Occupying a site of great charm, commanding a sweeping view of broad river and pleasing landscape, is this grand old mansion—to which the young officer came to live shortly after his marriage and to which he retired from the presidency, to spend his days in a manner befitting one of his rank, means and time, and where he died in 1799.

The structure was built in 1743 and contains many of the original furnishings and relics of the family.
Clustered about it are the barn, coach house, spinning house, meat house, ice house, wash-house, kitchen and other outbuildings. Nearby is a remarkable, old-fashioned garden, with quaint, oddly-designed spaces set off by box hedges, said to be 150 years old. In this garden is a coffee tree said to have been planted in 1824 by General Lafayette and cuttings from a willow tree which it is claimed were brought from the grave of the great Napoleon at St. Helena.

Enclosed in two marble sarcophagi, in a small and simple structure within the grounds, rest the remains of General George Washington and his consort Martha.

The Life Immortal.

We are born for a higher destiny than earth; there is a realm where the rainbow never fades, where the stars will be spread before us like islands that slumber on the ocean and where the beings that pass before us like shadows will stay in our presence forever.—Bulwer-Lytton.

GUARANTEE STILL TALKED BY LEAGUE

The question of a guarantee for visiting teams in the Alabama-Tennessee loop probably will not be decided upon definitely just yet, Charles Rountree, president of the Albany-Decatur club announced today.

Mr. Rountree stated that the directors' meeting, held yesterday in Columbia, was to discuss the question of a guarantee, but that no definite action was expected at the meeting.

The guarantee problem, which has been agitating the A-T loop for several days follows the falling of in attendance in Russellville, which is said to cause visiting teams to lose money there.

Medical Use of Radium

The popular supposition that most of the radium now produced is being used for luminous watch-dials and similar devices is contradicted by Mr. Hamilton Foley, of the Standard Chemical company, of Pittsburgh, who writes:

"Last year this company produced over 18 grams of radium, and of this amount only 1.2 grams went into luminous material. All of the rest went into the hands of the medical profession. This company has made more than half of the total supply of radium available in the world at the present time, and its first thought is for the medical profession."—Scientific American.

Reveals Defects in Steel

Bubbles, cracks and other defects in steel are made to reveal themselves by magnetism in a novel way. The block of steel is immersed in petroleum charged with a quantity of very fine iron filings. The residual magnetism of the steel is sufficient to attract the suspended filings, which mark out lines of force that are broken and show dark patches over the defective places.

THORNTON-WALKER

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Walker on Fourth Ave. West was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock when their daughter, Lottie became the bride of Mr. Morris Thornton of Selma, Ala. The ceremony was impressively performed by the Rev. Hinch, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Fayetteville, Tenn. The living room was beautifully decorated with sweet peas and gladioli. The young couple were preceded by Mr. Audrey Watkins who was Mr. Thornton's best man and Miss Ruth Watkins as maid of honor. Miss Watkins was most attractive in a pink organdy frock with hat to match. The bride was attractively gowned in a navy blue tricot with hat and accessories to match. Immediately after the ceremony the Mr. and Mrs. Thornton left for a week's stay in Tennessee. They will return for a short visit with home-folks here and after the Fifth of July will be at home in Selma where the groom has an important position with a Selma firm. As Miss Lottie Walker, Mrs. Thornton has been popular with the younger set and her many friends regret that she will make her home elsewhere.

Among the out of town guests at the Walker-Thornton wedding was T. J. Thornton of Fayetteville, Tenn.

OLD CARLYLE HOUSE

OF SURPASSING interest, because of its unmatched historical associations, is the venerable house of John Carlyle, who came to America as collector of customs for the British Crown.

It is located near the Potomac river in Alexandria, Virginia, which settlement was at that time a sort of American headquarters for the British empire. It was built in 1752, on top of an old fort which it is thought was constructed about the year 1600.

Solidly built of cut stone which it is believed was brought from England, the walls of this two-story-and-basement house are wonderfully well preserved and much of the interior furnishings remain but little unchanged from the days when this was the scene of much old-fashioned hospitality.

In the hallway stands a slender, grandfather's clock which for more than a century recorded the passing of time. Upstairs is the ancient canopy bed, so high that a step was necessary to enable one to comfortably climb into it, in which slept General Braddock who was sent to this country to take charge of the British forces during the French and Indian wars.

It was in the blue-room of this mansion that the celebrated and historic Council of the Governors of the Colonies was held, which contributed so much to the growing discontent that later expressed itself in the Revolutionary war.

General George Washington frequently visited here and it is said that his commission as commander in chief of the Colonial army was handed to him in this house.

COTTON MARKET SLIGHTLY LOWER

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, June 29.—While first prices were two to five points lower at the opening of the cotton market today, the undertone was steady and offerings from Liverpool were absorbed by Japanese and New Orleans interests.

Weakness at Liverpool just before the start was attributed to liquidations ahead of the United States government report on her crop.

After the start the list acted fairly steady with a narrow range and was about 7 points net lower at the end of the first 15 minutes.

Scriptures in a Nutshell.
Peter Bales, a scholar of Queen Elizabeth's time, lives in the Harleian Manuscripts at Oxford for having written the Bible in so small a hand that it was enclosed in a walnut. "The nut holdeth the book; there are as many leaves in his little book as in the great Bible, and he hath written as much on one of his little leaves as on a great leaf of the Bible."

An Irish Will.

The will of one Henry Green, dated December 22, 1879, "as recorded gave to his sister, Catharine Green, all his lands, and after her decease to others in trust, upon condition that she should give four green waistcoats to four poor women in a green old age every year, such green waistcoats to be lined with green galoon lace and to be delivered to the poor women on December 21 so that they might be worn on Christmas day."

Precautionary Measures.

"Honey, when you go to break the news to paw," whispered Miss Pinkey Pertwhistle, an Arkansas maiden who had just promised young Gabe Gawley that she'd be his'n, "you'd better ask him first thing for the loan of his pistol, and when you've got it safe in your pocket tell him we're going to get married, and then stun him right quick with a neck yoke or something."—Country Gentleman.

Sure Relief

FOR TORPID LIVER

Tennessee Lumberman Talks of His Successful Use of Black-Draught for Colds and Headaches.

Jamestown, Tenn.—"I have used Theford's Black-Draught for years, in fact it is the only liver medicine that does me any good," says Mr. L. A. Kagan, a well-known lumberman of this place. "When I was single, I used it for headaches, and especially if I get a cold and feel feverish, I take a good dose of Black-Draught, and it sets me right."

"Since I have been married, I have used it in my family, and never have found its equal for torpid liver or disarranged stomach, especially with children. I can recommend Black-Draught, and gladly do so."

Every member of the family occasionally needs the assistance that Black-Draught can give, in helping to cleanse the system and relieve or prevent the troubles that come from a lazy, torpid liver.

If your liver is not doing its duty, you may suffer with headache, constipation, biliousness, indigestion, etc. Unless relief is obtained, serious sickness may result. In its long and successful use, Theford's Black-Draught has been found in thousands of cases to relieve such disorders, by stimulating the liver to do its important work.

Ask for Theford's Black-Draught, and insist on the genuine. NO-157

Plans Are Made for Sheriff's Trial

(Montgomery Bureau, Albany-DeCATUR Daily.)

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 29.—Jatwell G. Davis, attorney-general, went to Birmingham yesterday and from that point he will go to Florence to consider the state's plans for the prosecution of the charges brought against George W. Mitchell, sheriff of Lauderdale county, in support of articles of impeachment. The case is scheduled to come before the Supreme court at a special hearing in Florence July 5.

A radical change in the state's plans will be necessary as a result of the decision of the Supreme court last week sustaining the decision of the court of appeals in the case of Tom Stevenson, who was convicted of murder and given a sentence of twenty years in the penitentiary. It was alleged by the state in the articles of impeachment that Sheriff Mitchell gave false testimony in the trial of Stevenson and this was one of the most serious charges brought against him. But the court was appealed and sustained the action of the lower court. Several other charges were made against Sheriff Mitchell but the most serious was that he gave false testimony.

Five Negroes Are Held as Suspects

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 29.—Five negroes are held in the city jail as suspects as a result of the shooting and robbery of E. Stevens, conductor of a Pickett Springs car, during the early hours of Tuesday. Stevens' car was held up at a lonely place by two negroes, he was shot in the back and all the collections of the day were taken. Within one hour two negroes had been arrested and later in the day three others were imprisoned.

Two negroes boarded the car, which is operated by one man near Pickett Springs. When the car was near the city abattoir one shot was fired into the conductor's back and he fell. The car stopped automatically and the negroes obtained the money and climbed through a window and escaped. City officers arrested two of the negroes a short time later, but both denied that they knew anything of the robbery. The other suspects also contend that they had no part in the hold-up and knew nothing about it until arrested.

Local Banks to Have Half Holiday

Cement and Concrete.

There is something of a confusion in the public mind about the terms cement and concrete. Cement is the dry, powdered stone, but when it is mixed with an aggregate of water and gravel or sand, it becomes concrete.

CIVITAN CLUB MAY BE ORGANIZED HERE

A dinner will be given Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock in the rooms of the Albany chamber of commerce when the feasibility of organizing a Civitan club in Albany will be discussed. The organization is devoted to civic betterment, social intercourse and building of citizenship. A tentative list of membership has been agreed upon, including many of the most prominent business men of the city.

JUST LOOKING FOR BUSINESS

Profit Was a Decidedly Secondary Consideration With This Remarkable Mississippi Negro.

Allen J. Krebs, a native Mississippi, who lives in Atlanta, has a story he likes to tell about an old negro friend who came to him one day when he lived in Mississippi and asked for a loan that would enable him to go into business.

"Ah been workin' fur somebody else all mah life," he said, "an' Ah wants to go out an' be mah own boss des once."

"Well, Uncle Billy," replied Mr. Krebs, "I think that is a laudable ambition, and I am going to help you. I am glad to see you dorkies doing something for yourselves. What are you thinking of doing?"

"Well, sur," said the old man, brightening considerably, "Ah fin' Ah kin buy wood cross de rubber at a dollar a cord. Ah Ah has to do is to light it across and sell it right here in de town."

As wood was selling at $5 a cord in Natchez, Mr. Krebs thought favorably of the venture and let Uncle Billy have the $300 to start the business.

A month later Mr. Krebs went down to the riverfront, and there was Uncle Billy just arriving with a lot of splendid looking wood.

"How are getting along, Uncle Billy?" asked Mr. Krebs.

"Des fine, des fine, cap'n," he replied.

"What are you gettin' for wood like that now?"

"Ah git a dollar 'er cord," answered the old man.

"Why, you idiot," said Mr. Krebs, "don't you know you can't pay a dollar a cord for wood, bring it across the river and sell it at a profit for a dollar a cord?"

"Lawd, Cap'n Krebs," responded Uncle Billy, engaged in one of those bewitching smiles that characterize the race. "Ah ain't looking for no profit. Ah'm des lookin' fur business."

DAISY HAD SELECTED COLOR

And as Might Have Been Imagined It Was Not Hue Associated With Funerals.

When the wife of Joe Betts, an Alabama dorky, died, he mourned her sincerely. "It's going to put a black border to my house," he said to one of his neighbors.

And he did. A week later a broad band of black outlined the front of his little dwelling.

A couple of years passed. Then one of his neighbors, stopping to speak to Joe, found him gazing up at his little black-edged house with an air of perplexity.

"It lasts well, Joe," said the neighbor, in a tone of sympathy, "but the black grows a little rusty. You will put on another coat?"

"Yessuh," said Joe. "Daisy Moore, she says it needs one other coat of paint."

"Daisy Moore! Oh! But has she said another coat of black paint, Joe?"

"Oh!" granted Joe, and then his look of perplexity vanished in a slow grin. "It's going to ask her tonight," he added briskly.

Two days later the sympathetic neighbor, passing again, was greeted by Joe from a ladder set against the house.

"How does yo' like it?" he asked, waving his paint brush toward the band of bright red glowing across the top of the little house. "Daisy Moore, she picked it out. We git married next week."

HARD UP, BUT YET DISLIKE TO WORK

BIRMINGHAM, June 29.—Negroes of this city may be out of work and willing to accept charity from the city, but they dislike working for $1.25 per day.

The city authorities are today looking for 18 negroes for employment at this rate on the streets.

Announcement that work would be given 25 negroes at the city hall caused a thinning out of those applying for charity. There were approximately 130 asking for help. Fifteen accepted jobs, but 7 of these did not show up for work today.

WONDERS OF AMERICA

By T. T. MAXEY

UNCLE SAM'S FUMIGATING VATS

SO RAPIDLY does the world move now-a-days, so numerous and varied are the wonders which are wrought by the ingenuity of our experts in various lines and so quietly is the work carried on, it frequently happens that the general public knows but little of the marvels that are among us.

For instance, down on the Texas border—at Laredo, to be exact—the United States Department of Agriculture operates a fumigating plant or vat which is sufficiently large to accommodate a train of fifteen freight cars at one time.

Freight cars arriving in the States from Old Mexico are infested with live, pink bollworm—a pest which feeds and devours the unripened pods of the cotton plant. If permitted to enter and scatter in this country, it would, provided it gained much headway, create losses running into the millions of dollars annually.

To prevent this loss and preserve the crop, therefore, such cars are unceremoniously shunted into these vats and the unwelcome bollworms aboard accorded a knock-out reception.

This plant resembles a long, brick shed. After the cars are received, the doors are closed and the plant is flooded with a gas, generated on the spot, the fumes of which are sure death to bollworms. At the end of an hour or more, the gas is drawn off, the cars removed and sent on their way and the plant is ready for the next incoming train.

Other similar, but smaller, plants are located at various coast points.

The Leonard Cleanable ONE-PIECE PORCELAIN LINED REFRIGERATOR

Can be cleaned in five minutes
You Can't Have Clean Food Unless You Have a Clean Refrigerator—

YOU wouldn't of course, eat anything but clean food. Yet food cannot be clean that has been in an unsanitary refrigerator. A bad odor in your refrigerator is always a danger signal.

Zinc or galvanized iron linings for refrigerators are unsanitary. Even though coated with white paint or enamel, they soon get stained and discolored. Worse still, cracks and scratches develop which fill with grease and food particles. Thus germs are fostered causing a most unsanitary condition.

A Leonard Cleanable is made with a one-piece porcelain lining, smooth, pure white, everlasting, just like a piece of china, except that it is unbreakable. This porcelain you cannot possibly scratch, not even with a steel knife blade. It has no cracks or crevices in which grease or germs may collect. It is as clean as a china dish and as easily kept clean. Notice how the porcelain lining of the door is made in one piece. Look for the trade-mark shown below.

For your health and the health of your family, buy the Leonard Cleanable. We want to tell you no many good points you ought to know.

Do You Pay Cash for the Goods You Buy?

They are cheaper than the prices you pay for them charged, even for a short time. It's a common thing to hear a merchant say Mr. So and So is gone or out of a job and he owes me such and such a sum and can't pay it now and very likely never will.

Does the Merchant lose this or do the people who pay for their goods pay it?

Is it not sound logic that if the merchant who knows that he will lose some accounts, adds enough more to the price of his goods to make this up? We do not charge anything and do not deliver anything. No extra expenses whatever.

Oh—That's Different

New York Letter

NEW YORK, June 29.—Nobody in this whole wide land (You can't call it "broad" any more without having some punster interrupt you) is more grateful for the outlook of business thriving next autumn than are the chorus girls or the shows just closing. Beautiful June is liable to be a sad month for them. There isn't enough summer time chorusing to take the place of the winter affairs that stack the scenery quietly in a storehouse. But they are being rapidly absorbed into New York fashion modelling, and they are perfectly happy to walk haughtily across a show-room for a change so long as the good little pay envelope appears just the same at the week's end. At a fashion show put on the other day by one New York maker of woman's clothes, $300,000 was spent on the production. Musical comedy has nothing on that so far as the chorus girl is concerned.

It's pretty hard to wait eighteen years and search two continents to get the girl you want to marry and then have your romance end in an arrest for A. W. O. L. That's the sad story of Lieut. Marous Sakaros, graduate of the Greek Military Academy who was arrested here the other day. Eighteen years ago, when Sakaros was a lieutenant in the Greek Royal Navy, he met an English girl, fell in love with her, and tried to persuade her to marry him. He failed for the time and the girl returned to England. Some time later, he went there to find her. She had gone to America, he was told. Just as he was about to pursue her, he was recalled for service in the Balkan war. When he was through with that war, he sailed for the United States, and kept on looking until he went into the World War and one more he became a soldier. Then on day, on leave, he saw the girl at Brighton Beach! This time he won her and they were married. He was stationed at Fort Monroe and after several months, he got leave to go home. He failed to return, probably deciding that he had waited long enough to be able to settle down a home. If he hadn't got himself into the arms of the law by speeding his automobile the other day, he would be settled there still.

English needlework of the times of Charles I is on exhibition at the Dawson Galleries. Many a famous hand worked industriously at her embroidery during that period and the results of her work are truly marvelous to us of this generation—or this age. The numbers of different kinds of stitches are multitudinous and it was not uncommon to crowd so many of them into an inch of space that it takes a magnifying glass to distinguish them all. Purse, carpets, bags, and all sorts of things are in the collection, among them a pair of white satin sleeves embroidered in gold by Queen Anne.

The baldheaded residents of our city are perturbed over the recent action of the Ellis Island immigration officials in barring Salvatore Ippolito from entering the country because of baldness. They are wondering if by chance it may become a cause of deportation as well.

PISTOLS PRESENTED

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 29.—(Special)—Miss Sophia Watts, secretary of the state department of conservation, yesterday presented to the department of archives and history two old style pistols which had been used by her grandfather, former Governor Thomas H. Watts, and her father, John W. Watts. One of the pistols is a cap and ball muzzle loader with silver mountings and probably is one hundred years old. The other is a pin fire cartridge pistol, which was made in 1857. Each has a container for only one ball and must be reloaded after being fired.

CARPENTIER HAS BEEN WORKING IN SECRET ON TRICKS

By JAMES J. CORBETT.
(Former heavyweight champion of the world. Written expressly for the I. N. S. Copyright, 1921 by International News Service.)

NEW YORK, June 29.—I dropped in on Georges Carpentier at Max's hasset about 8 o'clock last evening. I expected to find the challenger sitting on the veranda or the lawn. He was not in sight.

Presently he came up to the house from the big barn in which he does his gymnasium work. He was flushed and perspiring.

"Ah, Georges," I remarked, "you are putting in some good licks when no one is around? You are working as you expect to work when you get into the ring with Dempsey next Saturday?"

Carpentier laughed, winked and said, pleasantly: "You are right, Mr. Corbett, I have just been going through some work that I consider very important. I didn't get an opportunity to do it earlier in the day. There were too many around."

"You see, I am so in earnest about this fight. I am really training quite hard. To win means everything to me, more, by far, than the money, though, of course, that is a great incentive. But to be champion of the world! That has been my dream for years and I will leave nothing undone to bring about its realization." Believe me, Georges is serious. He is reasoned out his chances from every conceivable angle, and the result he obtained has convinced him that they are good.

While he told me nothing of his plans for the Dempsey fight, I imagine that when he gets into the ring it will be with the intention of letting Dempsey force things and attempting to box him at long range. Georges believes he can put across a winning inch once the opening comes and he will be content to wait for it. He very probably figures also that Dempsey may tire himself out and this is a point well worth considering. In the Willard fight at Toledo Dempsey ought himself out in the first round. He gave Willard everything he had and won his fight. No boxer ever expended more energy in one round than did Jack. But against Carpentier this sort of campaign may be unsuccessful for Georges is quick of foot, he is of hand, and Dempsey will not find him as easy to hit.

Dempsey has one glaring fault, as we see it. And that is his failure to relax. He stands there ready to hit, muscles set and firm. He did it at Toledo when Willard was weaving round like a drunken man and unable to harm him. He simply doesn't now the meaning of relaxation and in his case, with those tremendously heavy arms, failure to relax is bound to result in tiring out of the muscles.

If Carpentier can carry him along, therefore, he will conserve his strength while Dempsey expends his, for the Frenchman has discovered the secret of relaxing. He can go the distance the better for it, too.

Tibetan Remedies.

A Tibetan remedy for pains due to severe cold is the use of a sheep mixed with fat and rubbed on the affected part. Centipede skin, plaster and dressings of fried mutton fat with chopped onions are also used by the mountaineers to Tibet for the same purpose.—Brooklyn Eagle.

The Yodeling of the Swiss.

Yodeling is a peculiar manner of singing by using the falsetto voice in harmonic progressions, with sudden and unexpected changes to notes of the chest register. It exists chiefly among the Tyrolese and Swiss mountaineers.

The Babylonians gave us an hour with 60 minutes. They divided the sun's path into 24 passages, a passage equal to about four and a half miles. The distance a Babylonian soldier could hike in an hour with full pack. The astronomers of that day somehow worked it out that the sun made the same progress. They divided the sun's whole course into 24 passages, or 360 degrees, each passage, of course, being divided into 60 minutes, and then, having fallen on evil days, they handed the system down to the Greeks who passed it on.

Valuable Jack Pine.

There are many qualities of the Jack Pine which recommend it for a continuous forest crop. It is extremely hardy and grows on the poorest soils. It reproduces better than any other conifer in eastern Canada as is evidenced by the way it replaces other woods following cutting or fire. It grows rapidly and under natural conditions will attain pulpwood size in a shorter time than spruce or balsam.—Montreal Family Herald.

REVIVAL MEETING GIVEN GOOD START

The meetings at the Church of Christ's Summer Home on Grant st., has been given a splendid start by the some pastor assisted by C. H. Woodroof, of Anniston.

A large audience heard Mr. Woodroof last night on the very interesting and important subject "Christ Our Leader."

G. C. Brewer, of Austin, Texas, arrived last night and will be in charge of the service tonight, when he will begin his series of sermons on "The Christ," the first of which is "Christ, The Gift of God's Love."

The singing is spiritual and conventional and will be led by Mr. Woodroof.

When the Emergency Demands the Unusual

There come times in the life of every car owner when the instant readiness of his car is the most important thing in the day, perhaps in a whole life.

"Ready to go, able to get there," should be the unflinching answer of the car in such a crisis. Value of car performance at such times runs past any money estimate.

In that connection bear in mind that only the dealer who sold you the car can guarantee its constant roadability.

We have equipped ourselves with the many things necessary to discharge this dealer-obligation.
